Hair Donation by NSS volunteer Miss Kanakanjali Nath to cancer Welfare on 16th June 2021

Girl goes bald to donate for cancer patients

By Our Reporter

Kailashahar: Jun 20: Probably for the first time in India, a remarkable initiative was taken by a girl student and an NSS volunteer for donating hair to cancer patients.

Motivated by the NSS motto 'Not Me But You', an NSS volunteer of Ramkrishna Mahavidyalaya in Kailashahar compromising her external beauty, shaved off her hair and goes bald to bring a smile to the face of cancer patients undergoing treatment.

An Arts stream student who is preparing for the sixth semester and a resident of Kanchanpur called a local barber and tonsured her head for the noble cause on Friday last.

Kanakanjali Nath said, she decided to shave off her head as the hair would be used to make wigs for cancer patients undergoing treatment. She donated her well-maintained hairs to the Odisha Hair Donation Organisation for the Cancer affected patients who lost their hair and financially weak.

Kanakanjali cut her hair and sent it to the Organisation through Courier Service for providing it to the helpless Cancer Patients. She said, since her school life, she was planning to do something for the interest of cancer patients. But due to some problem, she could not donate her hair earlier.
